1. Armed members of the Lodz police force and factory guard units were ordered to report to the militia in July 1953.
2. Before a civil surveying project can be undertaken in Lodz, an application must be lodged with the state security office. Full details of the project and the names of the surveyors must be deposited with the office four weeks before the work is to begin.
3. The Pabianice Tool Factory at Warszawska Street 73, Pabianice, near Lodz, is undertaking the construction of an automobile or tractor factory (Gaskraftwagen-fabrik). The factory is being built according to Soviet plans.. A sum of one million zloty is to be expended on this project by 1 January 1954.
4. The Lodz mechanics' and precision craftsmen's unions have been given rush assignments for the construction of certain engine parts for the armed forces. All production norms in general were raised 15 percent during July 1953. Worker morale is very low.
